Note to People who Need Copy to be Written:

Hi. My name is Colin.

I run a popular discussion group for copywriters called "The Cult of Copy". (You can join at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/cultofcopy/>).

Because of that, people ask me all the time If I can help them find a writer, and I used to let them post their job offerings in the group.

As the group grew to thousands of members, there were so many posts about jobs that it was hindering the discussions.

So we created a spin off group, strictly for writers to post about their services, and for businesses to post writing jobs. (You can join that group at <http://Facebook.com/groups/copyjobs>)

Well, that group also grew to have thousands of members and while there are tons of jobs posted, they push down all the posts from writers who want to let people know about their services.

So that is why I have created this guide. Any writers who offer copy services to businesses can be listed here for a small monthly fee. I distribute this guide to many groups and forums and individual contacts who ask me for a referral to a good writer.

The hope is to create a win-win for the marketing community we are all part of, so I hope you find this guide useful!

Thanks, enjoy, and good luck out there.

Rev. Dr. Sir Colin D. Theriot
Pontifex Maximus,
The Cult of Copy

P.S. Should you ever have any kind of bad experience with anyone you hire here or in my groups, do let me know directly via my contact info below. I take the quality of his resource very seriously.

Thanks again!

Note to People who WRITE COPY:

Hello. My name is Colin.

As a former freelance copywriter myself, I know what it can be like to have to split your time between looking for clients and fulfilling the work you already have.

Let me help you connect with people who need copy work done. As the admin of a very large discussion group for copywriting (<http://Facebook.com/groups/cultofcopy>), and as a copywriting teacher, I get asked all the time to refer writers for projects.

From now on, I will be giving them this document when they ask. I am also going to be distributing this document to every group and location that I am allowed to.

So if you write copy for clients, and you would like to be listed in the next month's edition of this list, you must first join the following group:

<http://Facebook.com/groups/copyjobs>

Then in the "Pinned Post" at the top of the group, you will find instructions on how to subscribe and submit your listing information.

Thank you!

And good luck out there.

Rev. Dr. Sir Colin D. Theriot
Pontifex Maximus,
The Cult of Copy

P.S. Even if you don't want to be listed in the guide, it's a good idea to join that group and browse for job postings if you are looking to fill an empty spot in your calendar.

Thanks again!

How To Fuel Your Service Based Business, High Ticket Coaching Program, Or Saas With Qualified Leads For As Low As $3 Per Call...

THE STRATEGY PHASE

LAYING THE FOUNDATION FOR ACCELERATED BUSINESS GROWTH

THE PROFIT PHASE

THIS IS WHERE THE FUN STARTS!

Hi, my name is Andrew Hodukavich. I've been running cold email campaigns since 2012, and even today I send 2.8 MILLION cold emails per month. Most business owners turn to Facebook, Google, or YouTube to grow their business. But with rising ad costs, is that really the place to advertise? No. Because if you can get cold email right, you can SLASH your advertising costs, scale your business, and skip the technical headaches of social media advertising. So if you're interested in working together. There are two ways we can work together, one you can give me your campaign, and I'll run it for you. OR I will create you an entire new campaign from the ground up. When you're ready to get started, just go here to schedule a call: www.leadhype.com

"Andrew's team generated 6 roofing contracts the first month, and in the second month 6 figures worth of contracts. I am a customer for life." -Ricky Martinez, Owner of Blue Mound Roofing
